

Save the Date

Arizona Hypertension Leadership Summit

By invitation only—Limited to 75 participants.

Date: February 19, 2010 (Friday)

Times: Morning Session: 8 a.m. to 12 noon
(Breakfast provided 7 a.m. to 8 a.m.)

Optional Working Group Luncheon: 12 noon to 2 p.m.
(Lunch provided)

Location: Black Canyon Conference Center
9440 North 25th Avenue
Phoenix, AZ 85021-2714
(East of I-17, North of Dunlap Ave.)

For: Health care leaders from health plans, hospitals and hospital systems, physician practices, medical groups, and other stakeholder groups who have an interest in improving hypertension treatment for Arizonans.

Keynote: “What we have learned since the JNC 7 and what we might expect in JNC 8”*

Jan N. Basile, MD

Senior Editor, Journal of Clinical Hypertension

Professor of Medicine, Medical University of South Carolina

Former Chief of Primary Care, Ralph H. Johnson VA Medical Center

In Addition: Local experts will present on:

- Hypertension in Arizona and how well it is being managed.
- Hypertension in the spectrum of disease.
- Improving the care of patients with hypertension.

Registration: FREE—Preregistration (no later than Jan. 29th) is required.
Go to <http://www.hsag.com/events.aspx>

Information: For additional information, contact
Andrea Silvey, PhD, MSN, (602.665-6135, asilvey@hsag.com) or
Laura Picone (602.665.6193, lpicone@hsag.com).

Sponsoring Organizations:

The AZ Hypertension Leadership Summit is organized by Health Services Advisory Group, Inc., with funding provided by Novartis.

*Seventh Report of the Joint National Committee on Prevention, Detection, Evaluation, and Treatment of High Blood Pressure