Florida Asthma and Tobacco Cessation Learning and Action Network

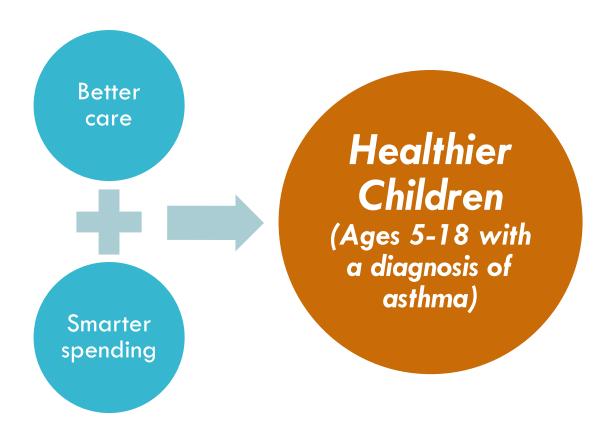

- Asthma is the most prevalent illness across all Medicaid recipients<sup>1</sup>
- Medicaid covers over 50% of asthma emergency department visits
- Opportunity to work with national experts on quality improvement initiatives focused on improving asthma management

<sup>1.</sup> Analyzing the Disease Burden of Florida Medicaid Enrollees Using Clinical Risk Groups, Quarterly Statewide Medicaid Managed Care Report, Winter 2016, Agency for Health Care Administration.

Purpose of the LAN

To produce statewide improvement in delivering comprehensive asthma management services and tobacco cessation opportunities

LAN Overview

The National Institute for Children's Health Quality with over a decade of experience, is a catalyst for mobilizing the best people to improve children's health. Join the Asthma Learning and Action Network!

Questions and Discussion

Jamie Forrest, MS

Epidemiology and Evaluation Program Administrator
Bureau of Chronic Disease Prevention
Florida Department of Health

(850) 245 – 4444 x 2998

Jamie.Forrest@FLHealth.Gov

