Ellume COVID-19 Home tests Recall

- Increase likelihood of giving a false positive result for some lots
- ellumecovidtest.com/return and see if lot number has been recalled
- Recommendations
  - Retest with a molecular test if less than 2 weeks since initial positive result with recalled Ellume lot to confirm positive result
  - If more than two weeks since positive Ellume test and did not have a positive confirmatory molecular test, individual may not have had COVID-19 and still should be tested as per current guidelines and not delay testing for 90 days.
- If you have an unused Ellume COVID-19 Home Test from an affected lot, use the Ellume COVID-19 Home Test App or follow the directions on ellumecovidtest.com/return to request a product replacement.
